

Warren Hotels
The Warren Hotel is the building at the far left.

The middle building had a big sign with “HOTEL” on it.

Prior to 1910 there were several Houses that would rent rooms. Some had connection to local taverns. Some were for travelers and were found at Kunrod's corners and Beebe's corners. And I heard about Rosie's which had a red light at night. Not sure where it was but the locals knew. With World War Two and a big housing shortage many folks rented rooms and many hotels sprung up,
